

Odiham Art Group

The Odiham Art Group is a non-profit making organization whose purpose is to promote fine art activities and an interest in art for all age groups in Odiham and the surrounding area.

The Group was started in 1976 when a number of likeminded folk got together to arrange demonstrations, workshops, painting days and an exhibition. Since then the group has grown to over a hundred members. We meet throughout the year with outdoor painting days in the summer and demonstrations and workshops in the winter. During the October half term we hold our Group Exhibition in a local School. It opens with the private view on Friday evening and then Saturday and Sunday are open to the public. We have a regular newsletter to keep us all in the know.
